OCIOs Consolidating for More Alts Access

TIFF Investment Management CEO Kane Brenan discusses the recent consolidation among Outsourced Chief Investment Officer (OCIO) firms and the industry's rapid growth. He highlights the appeal of the OCIO model, focusing on governance, access to managers, and talent for investment committees. Brenan underscores TIFF's access to investment managers, particularly venture capital practitioners, that are often closed to other allocators, offering distinct investment opportunities for clients. He also discusses the advantage of firm size, enabling TIFF to make allocations in high-performing venture capital funds and propelling its historical performance above benchmarks.
