TIFF Welcomes New Board Members Deborah D. Boedicker and Mai-Anh Fox

TIFF Investment Management (Radnor, PA) welcomes Deborah D. Boedicker, CFA and Mai-Anh Fox, CFA to its management and mutual fund Boards.

Deborah D. Boedicker, former managing director and board member at Strategic Investment Group, has joined the TIFF Advisory Services Board. Prior to her tenure at Strategic Investment Group, Ms. Boedicker was managing director at UBS Global Asset Management (formerly Brinson Partners) and director/portfolio manager at Analytic/TSA Global Asset Management. Ms. Boedicker's role also will include governance oversight of TIFF as a nonprofit organization.

Mai-Anh Fox, Chief Financial Officer at the Ford Foundation, has been elected by shareholders to the TIFF Mutual Fund Board. She previously served as a director at the Alliance for Downtown New York, where she managed a loan and grant portfolio program to help small businesses in Lower Manhattan recover following 9/11.

Both Ms. Boedicker and Ms. Fox bring expertise to support TIFF's mission and provide insight into asset allocation, portfolio construction, governance, and the selection of investment managers. For nearly 30 years TIFF's Boards have included many of the nonprofit industry's most prominent CEOs, CIOs and other financial executives, and with these additions the Boards now comprise 35% female representation.
