

Private Foundation Tax Could Change Charitable Giving

Anne Duggan of TIFF Investment Management tells Chief Investment Officer that proposed changes to the foundation tax could have varied effects depending on asset size. While the impact on returns is minimal for most, Duggan notes that larger foundations may reconsider their investment strategies or turn to donor-advised funds to help manage the added tax burden.

Read the full article

The materials are being provided for informational purposes only and constitute neither an offer to sell nor a solicitation of an offer to buy securities. These materials also do not constitute an offer or advertisement of TIFF's investment advisory services or investment, legal or tax advice. Opinions expressed herein are those of TIFF and are not a recommendation to buy or sell any securities.

These materials may contain forward-looking statements relating to future events. In some cases, you can identify forward-looking statements by terminology such as "may," "will," "should," "expect," "plan," "intend," "anticipate," "believe," "estimate," "predict," "potential," or "continue," the negative of such terms or other comparable terminology. Although TIFF believes the expectations reflected in the forward-looking statements are reasonable, future results cannot be guaranteed.

TIFF Investment Management

June 12, 2025

Copyright © 2025 TIFF Advisory Services, LLC. All rights reserved. May not be reproduced or distributed without permission.